DISAPPOINTED SOX BY WINNING ONE

Washington Split Even With Chicago.

HUELSMAN'S TRUSTY BAT

Practically Won Second Game for Senators by Driving in Three Runs.
Fine Fielding.

Chicago, 6; Washington, 1.
Washington, 5; Chicago, 4.

Washington threw the hooks into the pennant aspirations of Chicago yesterday by winning one game of the double-header. Chicago kept up its good intentions in the first game and bagged it by 6 to 1, but P. J. Donovan's tribe fooled the public and lashed the final set to 5 to 4.

Sir Laurence Huelsman and his wagon tongue, ably assisted by one Cassidy, and the twirling of Patten, turned the trick on the diamond artists from Fairland. The big Southern League had Owen and Walsh on his list and drove out a triple, a double, and a single, out of four trips to the plate, and batted in three runs for his team.

It was no fault of his that he did not drive four of them to tally, for in the first inning with Huelsman at first and two out, he planted one of Owen's high twisters far in right field, and pulled up at the third station.

A Useless Kick.
Umpire King, however, waved the big meadow guardian back to second, and beckoned Stahl, who had scored, back to third, claiming that the ball went into the crowd. Manager Donovan and his cohorts registered a kick, but the arbitrator held his decision.

As a matter of fact, the ball hit no one, and no outsider prevented Green from cleanly fielding it. Cassidy, the next man up, was charged to the occasion, flying out to left, and the Senators were minus a score. So much for the feat of the "Southern League Lajole."

Cassidy and George Davis contributed run No. 5, which decided the game in the Senators' favor. With two down in the lucky seventh, Silent Joe planted one of his big ones to Cassidy, who past Fielder Jones, and legged around to the three-quarter post. Jones relayed the throw to Tannehill to catch Cassidy at third, but the fling was faulty and the Chester boy came home.

Sharp Fielding.
There was good fielding aplenty to keep the fans on edge in the second game. Things opened badly for the Senators in the fourth, when Callahan started with a single. Then Davis banged a hard one, which Patten, by an excellent catch, nailed in his gloved hand, and throwing to first headed off Callahan, completing a pretty double play. The apparatus that greeted Cassidy's good catch was loud and long. It finally died away, only to be renewed when the air-haired twister of Sullivan was precisely the same kind of a catch.

As he walked to the bench Case had to do his cap and glasses. Cassidy, Mullin, and Hill also worked a fast double in the eighth inning, when Jones' dangerous for Washington. Donovan's run went to Cassidy, who chucked a 3 to 4 in, forcing Isbell, Mullin, by a quick accurate throw to Hill, caught Tannehill a few inches from third.

The Sox looked dangerous in the ninth, with Jones' fast sprinter, on second, and Callahan at bat, but Huelsman quieted the minds of the fans when he got under Callahan's fly to left and retired the side.

First Game Facts.
The first game went to the Chicagoers easily. The batting of Jones, who got three singles out of three times up, a one-hand catch of a liner off Hill's bat by Isbell, and the base running of Jake Stahl were the key men.

A play seen but once in a long time occurred in the sixth inning. Stahl led off for the Senators and placed a clean hit over first. Isbell threw his glove at the ball and hit it, Jake getting only a single.

Chicago opened the scoring in the third, Green walked off Townsend, and Jones followed with a single. Green was hit to sacrifice, but Green was caught at third, Davis' single to center passed through Herber's arms and George went to third, Jones and Callahan scoring. Davis scored from third a moment later on McFarland's ball to Huelsman.

The Senators got one in their half. Townsend led off with a two-bagger down the right field foul line and scored on Stahl's single.

Chicago got another run in the fifth on a single and a stolen base by Jones and Davis two-out to left.

The last two runs came in the ninth session. After Davis had been set down, McFarland and Tannehill each singled and worked a double steal. Isbell struck out, but both runners scored on Dundon's two-bagger, which split the left field foul line.

Second Game Joys.
Neither team could score in the first two innings, but the Senators broke the ice in the third. O'Neill planted a solid single over second and Tex Hill sacrificed him to second. Dundon did not properly handle Stahl's bump and Jake was safe. O'Neill going to third, Huelsman drove a hard, long single to deep left and O'Neill and Stahl scored, Stahl coming all the way around from first, reaching home with but little to spare.

The fourth inning netted the Senators another run. Mullin beat out an infield single. Kittredge fouled out, but

LABOR DAY TROPHY

CUP FOR AUTOISTS AT BENNING.

This Is One of the Numerous Fine Prizes for the Auto Races Tomorrow, Now on View at the Store of Galt & Bro.

SPORTING EVENTS AT BENNING TRACK

Imposing Program for Holiday Carnival.

AUTO RACES ARE THE THING

Many Swift Machines Entered in Various Classes, and Records May Fall—Athletic Events.

The Central Labor Union proposes to make its Labor Day celebration a memorable one for years to come, and of this there is very little doubt, for a small army has been busily engaged in perfecting the plans for a monster meeting at the Benning race track.

That there will be a good crowd is assured by the advance sales of tickets for the day's doings, which begin at 10 a. m. The program for the day begins with sixteen events in field athletics. Each winner and second will receive a handsome prize. When the field sports are over, the Navy Yard and Union baseball teams play for a $25 cash prize.

Big Auto Races.

All this will fill in the time till 2 p. m., when the big automobile races are to be run. These races will be the best ever held in this vicinity, and should be hotly contested. Cars of every motive power and of all weights and classifications have been entered. The track is a fast one, and record time may be reached.

It is the purpose of the management to permit the free use of the grandstand until 1 p. m., at which hour it will be cleared, and only those admitted who have grandstand tickets or private boxes. The open space in front of the grandstand will be roped off so that no one can reach the fence along the track. This is a measure of safety. The public must bear also in mind that there will be a large force of police, who will allow no one to cross to the infield or leave it after the automobile races begin. Going as the cars do at railroad speed, it is not only a risk to the person crossing, but to the drivers, who may be run into by the car behind. The rule prohibiting crossing the track will be positively enforced.

Automobile Races.
Following is the auto racing program: Races called at 2 p. m. sharp.

Event No. 1, five miles. Free-for-all. For machines of any motive power, weighing from 1,432 to 2,044 pounds.

Event No. 2, five miles. For gasoline machines weighing from 881 to 1,432 pounds.

Event No. 3, five miles. For machines of any motive power, weighing from 551 to 881 pounds.

Event No. 4, five miles. For gasoline machines weighing from 1,432 to 2,044 pounds.

Event No. 5, three miles. For steam machines weighing from 551 to 881 pounds.

Event No. 6, five miles. For electric machines of any power.

Event No. 7, five miles. For gasoline machines having at $150 and less, stock cars with road equipment.

Event No. 8, ten miles. Free-for-all. Automotive power; stock cars with road equipment.

Silver trophies will be the first and second prizes in each event.

Athletic Sports.
The program of athletics and the prizes are as follows:

First event—100-yard race; for members of Central Labor Union only. Season ticket to Kerman's; smoking set.

Second event—100-yard race; for boys fourteen years and under. Umbrella; sweater.

Third event—Sack race; open to all. Toilet set; hat.

Fourth event—Running high jump. Bag; box cigars.

Fifth event—50-yard race; girls fourteen years and under. Music box; rocker.

Sixth event—Putting the shot; open to all. Metal; fishing rod.

Seventh event—Shot put; open to all. Pass given by Chesapeake Beach Railroad; box cigars, Central Labor Union.

Eighth event—Egg race; for ladies. Gold medal; ostrich plume.

Ninth event—Three-legged race. Prizes announced at time of event.

Tenth event—Wheelbarrow race. Prizes announced at time of event.

Eleventh event—Broad jump. Open to all. Dress suit case; pair of $4 shoes.

BASEBALL MATCHES BY THE AMATEURS

Championship of District Is at Stake.

AN INTERESTING SERIES

Commissioners Play Fourth Presbyterian and Norris Peters, and Fourth Plays St. Stephen's.

A feast of baseball has been provided for those who are interested in the amateur teams of Washington for Labor Day.

One game will be played in the morning at American League Park between the strong independent Commissioners team and the Fourth Presbyterians, champions of the Sunday School Athletic Association.

Two will be played in the afternoon among "champions." The Commissioners will meet the Norris Peters Company team at American League Park in the afternoon, and the Fourth Presbyterians will cross bats with St. Stephen's Institute, which won the championship in the Capital City League, at Georgetown Field.

All of these games should furnish good contests, and the long-disputed question of supremacy will be partly or possibly wholly settled. The Norris Peters team will be composed of many of the Kismet Council players, who were last year members of the Norris Pits Company aggregation, which was then the undisputed champion of the District. The Commissioners are slight favorites.

Numerous "ifs."
Should Norris Peters defeat the Commissioners and the latter vanquish the Church League boys, the Peters team will again have to be hailed as champions, but should both the Fourth Presbyterians and the Norris Peters team down the Commissioners, it would be necessary to have these two last-named meet in a deciding game, which will probably happen.

The Kismet have probably as strong a team as any of those which will meet tomorrow, and should the Norris Peters team lose its game, the champions of the Royal Arcanum League would be entitled to a game with the team winning the game on Labor Day, and the team winning the series would be hailed as the undisputed banner organization of the District.

WRESTLE FOR CLUB HONORS.
Archie Murray, of Southeast Washington, and Albert Maher, of Brightwood, will wrestle at the Potomac Athletic Club tomorrow evening. The boys are evenly matched. This bout is to be to a finish, and stranglehold barred.

NEW CANDIDATES FOR FOOTBALL

Two Crew Men Join Georgetown Squad.

MEN TO REPORT SEPT. 14

Dr. Reilly Issues Call for Molekin Heroes to Uphold Blue and Gray Reputation.

"Buffalo" Shanley, the stroke, and John Wade, No. 6, of the Georgetown varsity crew, have announced their intention of becoming candidates for the Blue and Gray football eleven this fall.

Shanley was a member of the gridiron squad last fall, but as he was late in reporting he never made the team, but was put in the Carlisle game as a substitute guard. Wade has never played football since entering the university, but it is believed that he will be a valuable addition to the fall squad.

All Report Then.

September 14 is the day set by Dr. Reilly, the head coach, for all the candidates for the eleven to report. As fast as the line men arrive in town they will be taken to the field on the Heights, where they will be set to work to reduce weight so they will be able to take up practice with the back-field men the first day of regular practice under Captain Mahoney.

Big Pascall, the ex-Lehigh center, is fast getting into condition, and it is expected that he will be one of the best candidates for the line among the new men. He is in his second year at Georgetown. Previous to entering the university he played for two years at Lehigh and was therefore ineligible until he had been at Georgetown one year. At present he is weighing 260 pounds.
